ORDER TO APPEAR BEFORE A MAGISTRATE: BINDING OVER
PERSONS TO KEEP THE PEACE: SECTION 384 OF ACT 56 OF 1955

To:		(Respondent)
Address:

Whereas a complaint on oath has been made to the Magistrate that your conduct, threats, language or behaviour is/are likely to provoke a breach of the peace or assault [a copy of the complaint is attached hereto];

Therefore you are hereby ORDERED to appear before a Magistrate at the Magistrate's Office, Keate Street, Ladysmith, in Room on at 09h00 so that it may be enquired into and determined upon such complaint.

NOTE:

- o Should the Magistrate deem it necessary he or she may cause you to be arrested and brought before him or her for an enquiry;
- o The Magistrate may order you to give recognizance with or without sureties in an amount not exceeding R2000.00 for a period not exceeding six months to keep the peace towards the complainant and refrain from doing or threatening injury to his/her person or property;

- The Magistrate may, upon any such enquiry, order the person against whom the complaint is made, or the complainant, to pay the costs of and incidental to the enquiry;
- If any person after having been ordered to give recognizance refuses or fails to do so, the Magistrate may order him or her to be committed to gaol for a period not exceeding six months unless such security is sooner found;
- If the conditions upon which the recognizances were given are not observed by the person who gave the same, the Magistrate may declare the recognizances to be forfeited and any such declaration of forfeiture shall have the effect of a judgment in a civil action in the Magistrate's Court of the district.
